

LOCAL

Look Back in Time

80 YEARS AGO: 1932

Fossil Museum at high school

VERO BEACH - Following

a suggestion offered by John H. Chase, who is investigating fossil remains found locally, plans are being formulated for establishing a museum at the Vero Beach High School.

The senior science class, under the supervision of Sarah Clark, and the junior science class, under the supervision of Frances Hillman, is interested in the project. A large glass-front cabinet will be provided to hold the specimens.

70 YEARS AGO: 1942

New quarters for funeral home

VERO BEACH - The Vero Beach funeral home is opening today in its new location at 1443 19th Place, in the large two-story building formerly known as Riggs Manor. Hamilton scheduled to start six-hour events. Between 5,000 and 10,000 spectators are expected on the grounds around Vero Beach airport ways to witness the events in the Florida duration Race. All are are amateurs and they get a trophy if they place.

50 YEARS AGO: 1962

Kids enjoy dog show

VERO BEACH - Fifteen

won prizes in the second annual Kids Dog Show held in Vero Beach. A total of 50 dogs competed in five classifications. Included: smallest, largest dog, best trick dog and best dog of show. The show was staged at the Vero Beach Department of Recreation in operation with the Oats Co.

30 YEARS AGO: 1982

Knights distribute footsie rolls